MORRISON & JOHNSTON

"The Hardware Men"

THE FAIR WAS GOOD.

A SPLENDID EXHIBIT OF AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS, A LARGE CROWD, AND FINE WEATHER

Lacombe's fourteenth Annual Exhibition, which was held on the Society's old ground on Thursday and Friday last, was most successful, both in point of attendance and exhibits.

The exhibit of cattle was better than for years, while the hall exhibit was a credit to any community.

There was a very fine exhibit of horses, but those which were entered were of a high class. Two fine imported Percherons owned by Mr. A. G. Edwards, won both the prizes in their class, Pointon, 57875, a beautiful dappled grey, winning first, and Bayard, 62892, a dark brown three year old, winning second. These horses were imported from France by Mr. Edwards and are fine animals. The Standardbred stallion, owned by Messrs. Scott & Morris carried off the honors in the light horse class.

The driving and general purpose teams were above the average here, and visitors who had the impression that Lacombe district raised only fine cattle came to the conclusion that our horses are also hard to beat.

The cattle men were out in full force, although Parker & Fraser's bunch were missed. O. Palmer had some exceptionally fine specimens of the white faces on the grounds, and succeeded in carrying off nearly all the prizes. Mr. Huntley also had some very fine animals on the ground.

Thos. Talbot, C. W. McIntosh, and A. F. McGill had a good exhibit of Shorthorns. Mr. Talbot carried off six firsts in this class.

Some fine specimens of the Polled Angus and Galloway breeds were also shown, the honors being divided between Messrs. R. E. Johnson, J. Capron, and J. H. Fay.

All the prizes in the Holstein classes were captured by G. E. White, that gentleman securing six firsts and one second prize. The animals were all of the very best quality.

The grade cattle class was not well filled but the animals exhibited were all very good ones.

The exhibit of pigs was not very large, but the quality was good. Thos. Henderson, A. F. McGill, P. A. Switzer, C. W. McIntosh took most of the prizes in this class.

A. Boyd exhibited the prize winning sheep.

The hall exhibit was the best ever seen in Lacombe, and was a credit to the wives and daughters of the Lacombe district. The butter exhibit was especially good, and the preserved fruits and other edibles made our reporter hungry for the good things "Mother used to make." The fancy work, sewing, etc., from the remarks we heard passed by ladies, must have been all right, it looked good to us anyhow.

That we have artists of no mean merit in Lacombe was evidenced by the display of paintings, etc., the work of local ladies and gentlemen.

The vegetable display was a surprise to everybody. While we all are aware that the land of this district is capable of growing anything, the variety and size of vegetables shown would have to be seen to make one believe that they were produced here. Twenty pound turnips, mammoth cabbages, beets two feet long, and potatoes fit for the table of a king were there in profusion. The exhibit of grain was also good. In fact, the whole show, from the standpoint of an agricultural exhibition was all that could be desired.

The exhibit of the Lacombe, Brick, Tile and Cement Co. came in for a large amount of favorable criticism. It is the opinion of all who saw the brick displayed at the hall that no finer building material can be produced in the country.

One part of the exhibition, however, was not successful. An attempt had been made to provide entertainment for the visitors, and a very interesting program had been prepared. In some unknown manner, however, this part of the days entertainment was not put on.

The thanks of the entire community are due to Secretary Caruthers for the hard work he put in in endeavoring to make the exhibition a success. To his lot fell nearly all the work in connection with the fair, and that the exhibition was a success is due to his efforts.

Next year the Society will hold their fair on their new grounds. A fine track is being built, good hall accommodation is being provided, sheds for the stock will be erected, and then everything will be lovely.

Prize Winners will be found on last page.

There will be a meeting of all interested in hockey in Cummings' rink on Tuesday evening next, to arrange for team for season 1907-8.

His many friends in the district will be pleased to learn that N. Shular, of Blackfalds, is rapidly recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

R. W. McLeod, of the R. N. W. M. P., who at one time was stationed here, and who has just returned from the far north, is in town renewing acquaintances.

T. B. Thomas, of the Camrose Mail, has announced that he is in the field for the Dominion House, and will contest Strathcona constituency.

Matthew Flatober, who has been ill for some months, is now recovered sufficiently to attend to business, and will be found at his photo studio next to Royal Hotel.

Next Monday night the Epworth League of the Methodist church will hold a debate to which the public is invited. The subject is "Resolved that the influence of the modern newspaper is more for good than evil." The affirmative will be upheld by Messrs. Page, McNair and Irvine, while the negative will be championed by Messrs. Henshaw, Mooney and Horne. All are invited.

T. E. Converse of Gull Lake, brought into this office this week two white turkeys, one weighing eighteen pounds and the other fifteen. The remarkable thing about these turkeys is the fact that they were a volunteer growth, and Mr. Converse says he has a whole field of big ones from the same source.

Mrs. A. B. Wood, sister of Mrs. Will Lawton, of Blackfalds, died at the residence of her sister on Monday morning last after an illness extending over a year. The deceased lady was injured by a fall over a year ago, and has been paralyzed ever since. The funeral took place to the Blackfalds cemetery, and was attended by many friends of the deceased.

The Conservatives do not know whether to laugh or to cry over the fact that the labor men, in council assembled at Winnipeg, have declared against Sir Wilfrid Laurier. It is very nice indeed, having such a mighty organized force arrayed against the government. But then—but then—suppose the Conservatives to be in power and the same demands to be made upon them, what then.

Our civilization should surely have outgrown torture of witnesses. We ought to treat a witness as a citizen and not as a criminal—just as we ought to treat jurymen as citizens and not as "suspects" only safe when in confinement. A lawyer should be compelled to be a gentleman even in court, and it ought not to be permissible for him to say anything to another gentleman in the witness box that he would not dare say outside. If the witness retaliates, the lawyer at once asks the protection of the judge, and that same protection should be extended to the witness as well.

We have heard a good many settlers putting up a roar at the severity of the weather last winter and the hard time they had to feed their stock and get enough fuel to keep themselves warm during the cold spells. How does the following news strike these bony headed sons of toil? Mrs. Fred Sykes and her sister Miss Frances Cherington, of Jarvis Bay, Buffalo Lake, notwithstanding the weather succeeded in doing all the work in connection with feeding sixty head of cattle, hauling the hay for miles, watering, etc., etc., and brought the herd through in good shape without the loss of a single head. In addition to this work these two slim young women cut and hauled all their fire wood, and did not suffer in any way from the strenuous work. These are the kind of women who are going to make Alberta the greatest province in Canada.

Arrested for Bigamy.

Mrs. Fred Stevens, nee Rose Jones, was arrested here on Monday on a charge of bigamy.

On October 24, 1897, Miss Rose Jones, was married to Mr. Fred Stevens, a well known and respected young man of the town. After living happily together for several years, domestic troubles arose, and Mrs. Stevens quit her home and left for the States. While in Montana, she met and is reported, married a man named Gwynne, with whom she has been living ever since.

It is claimed that a divorce was secured in the States, but as Mr. Stevens says he was not notified and given a chance to defend the suit, he has had proceedings instituted to clear the matter up. He wishes particularly to have the question of who retains custody of their child settled. The boy is at present living with a sister of Mr. Stevens.

An Impressive Ceremony.

On Tuesday afternoon a large and enthusiastic crowd, consisting of the members of the town council, meneders down below the mill, where the outlet for the town sewer is to be, and amid great applause Mayor Gourlay turned the first sod of what promises to be the commencement of Lacombe's sewer system.

MARRIED.

EASTBURN—LAMPMAN—At the Methodist parsonage, on Sept. 27, 1907, by Rev. H. E. Gordon, B. A., Sanford Walker Eastburn, of Witenburg, in the Medicine Valley, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Maud Lampman, also of Witenburg.

BORN.

STOLLINGS—At Lacombe, on Sept. 27, to Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Stollings, a son.

SKINNER—At Lacombe, on Oct. 8th, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Skinner, a daughter.

McDERMID—At Lacombe, on Oct. 8, to Mr. and Mrs. N. I. McDermid, a daughter (stillborn).

GRAHAM—At Lacombe, on Oct. 8, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham, a son.

DAVIDSON—At Pleasant Valley, on Sept. 29, to Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Davidson, a son.

RIMBEY ITEMS.

Because there is never seen in The Western Globe items from Rimbeys, do not think we are all dead, but pushing right along with the rest of the busy world. The real truth is we are so busy attending to our own affairs, and every one else as well, that we never take a minute off to have a few of the most important events published. However, we will try and do better in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Therpe left Sunday for Vancouver, B. C., where they expect to be gone for a month or more. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Putland of Beutley, will take their place at Rimbeys, while they are gone.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Marshall, a son, Sept. 21st. Mother and child are both doing well.

For the past two weeks, Mrs. Frank Flager has been seriously ill, but the last report she was slowly gaining, which every one is pleased to hear.

Miss Minnie Lloyd visited with Miss Jean Marshall on Sunday last.

Harry Keefe, who has been in Edmonton for the past two months, returned last week. Rimbeys seems to have the greatest attraction for him. How about it Harry?

On account of Church of England being held in the M. E. church last Sunday morning, Methodist church, was postponed until 7:30 that evening; however, there was a large attendance and a good sermon was preached.

Sunday Act or no Sunday Act the sound of the binder was heard throughout the vicinity very plainly last Sunday. Can any fault be found?

The new hotel at Rimbeys is nearly completed, and it is hoped that the opening will be a grand ball.

There were only two days school this week, the teacher, Mr. Sanders, being away for the remainder of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Adams, of Bentley, spent the past week with Mrs. Adams' mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Marshall.

A pleasant evening was spent at Mr. and Mrs. Vliet's last Saturday evening. A crowd of young people called in and surprised their son Max, on his 21st birthday. Later on in the evening refreshments were served after which everyone returned home. It seems on their way home some one of the popular young ladies lost her cap. It was found along the road the next Sunday morning.

Miss Lottie Hilbourn visited with the Misses Lloyd last Sunday. Mike Uhl and mother were in Lacombe last week.

Liquor Traffic in Hotels.

To the Editor.

Sir:—As there is considerable discussion about licensing the sale of liquor in hotels in various towns, perhaps some observations of a traveller may be of interest to your readers.

During the past eight years, I have been in several hundred towns in Canada and the United States, and of course, in every town stayed in a hotel. The sale of liquor is prohibited altogether in some of the States—in Maine, Kansas and North Dakota, and this year two more states, Georgia and Oklahoma, have adopted prohibition.

In states and towns where it is licensed, liquor is sold in separate buildings called saloons, most of the hotels not handling it at all, and the question naturally arises if hotels of the same grades and prices can be managed in the States without handling liquor, why cannot they in Canada? People everywhere must have food and shelter, but it is not necessary that they drink beer or whiskey. And some hotels in Canada do get along without them. Calgary has a flourishing "temperance hotel" which last spring was enlarged by another story. On the Cardston line out from Lethbridge are several towns of from 500 to 1,500 people, chiefly Mormons, and in none of them is liquor sold. Birtle, a town of 500 population, on the Yorkton line, has two hotels, with $1.50 a day rates, that do not find it necessary to sell liquor, and one of them, to my notion, furnishes a better table than the average $2 a day house, and also, something I have not seen in any other hotel, it has a Bible for every room, "for the use of the guest," a delightful provision for those who think of something more than their stomachs.

Let me say further that the most disagreeable thing I have seen in Canada is the liquor traffic in hotels. I feel sure that I have seen from ten to twenty times as much of it as I would in the same amount of travel in the States. With some hotels, it seems to be the principal part of the business, the hotel part being secondary, and in them, the degradation, moral and physical, that one is sometimes compelled to witness is really awful, and something that should cause serious thinking on the part of those who are responsible for it, whether they are the drinkers, the sellers, or the licensees, or all of them.

OUR STORE is about completed, and in 2 weeks we expect to be moving our STOCK into it. To make this work as light as possible and to clear out many THOUSANDS of DOLLARS WORTH of GOODS we do not wish to move into the new Store, we will hold a

TWO WEEKS REMOVAL SALE

WE realise that we cannot sell unseasonable goods, even at a sacrifice and the goods we have tumbled out all over our tables and counters, are just the goods you want for FALL and WINTER. The Qualities and Prices are the two points you minds will make a Bee-line to know. The demand for Quality has kept pace with the progress of the West, and to-day quality is the outstanding feature of our STOCK. The prices include no middle-men's profits. We know what the goods cost at the Factories, and we know what they are usually sold for, and we have made our prices the lever that will move the goods at sight. We can only give you a partial list of an immense stock from which you can do all your FALL BUYING at a SAVING OF MANY DOLLARS.

STANFIELD'S UNDERWEAR

Is made of the best wool that grows on the best wool-bearing sheep in the world, the long, silky-fibred Nova Scotia wool. The wear of a garment depends on the quality of the wool, and there are seven grades of wool in a fleece. Underwear may be all wool, and still shrink and ravel and wear out in half a season. But Stanfields use only the best grades of wool. Their garments are absolutely unshrinkable, and we have customers who, to-day, are wearing their suit of this underwear for the third season. And besides its wearing and unshrinkable qualities it is warmer than any other. The better the sponge the more water it will hold, and the finer the wool the more heat it will absorb and hold next the body. We have Stanfield's Underwear in every size, for young folk, men and women. And now for our Sale Prices

"Just a Little."

The other day in Winnipeg when a reporter asked Rudyard Kipling if he noticed any change in Canada since he was last here, the answer was, "Just a little."

When it is remembered that Kipling's previous visit to Canada was fifteen years ago, it will be seen that there has been a great deal more than "just a little" change in Canada in that time.

In 1892 Canada had practically no status amongst the countries of the world; today it is the most important part of that greater Britain beyond the seas. Then the West was unknown as a grain-producing country; now it is the breadbasket of the Empire. Fifteen years ago the Northwest territories were the home of the hunter, the fur trader and the aborigine; at the present time the territories are of the past, and prosperous, self-governing provinces fast gaining in population, agriculture, mineral and manufacturing wealth, have taken their places.

Canada has gone forward by leaps and bounds in the last fifteen years and more substantial progress has been made by it than in all of the years that preceded it since the days of Jacques Cartier.

Yes; Mr. Kipling, Canada has gone ahead since your last visit, more than "just a little," and you will willingly admit that fact when you get back to Britain and take your pen in hand.

Valley City News.

The fine weather of the past few weeks has been a great boon to the farmers who have now nearly out all the crops. This week will just about see the end of the cutting.

Mr. John Cassella, contractor on the Wetaskiwin branch, was a visitor to our town during the week, looking up old acquaintances and looking over his property. He says that this district still looks the best to him.

A large number from the town and district took in the Stettler and Lacombe fairs.

Mr. Norman Meadows, our well known thresherman, has gone on a business trip to Calgary.

The school teachers from our district came in to the teacher's convention at Lacombe and are loud in their praises of the hospitable manner in which they were treated while in that place.

The government are going to close down the chicken fattening station about the middle of next month, so all who have chickens to fatten must bring them in by the 1st of November.

Two officials of the C. P. R. were in our town during the week on business connected with the siding.

A goodly number of our townsfolk have gone down to Red Deer to the Conservative convention.

Mr. George Bowker's new residence on his farm is now nearly completed.

There will be a big turkey and goose shoot in Valley City on Saturday week, this will be the time to get a bird for your Thanksgiving dinner.

NEWS OF ALIX

A cabbage weighing twenty-four pounds, has for a few days been on exhibition at the store of W. L. Pettit. It was grown by Mr. Kraft.

A goodly number patronized the fair at Stettler on Tuesday and Wednesday last. The exhibits from this locality were numerous and extremely successful. Twenty-four prizes came to Alix—eighteen of them being firsts and six seconds. Messrs. Kraft and Ennis led with vegetables, and Jacques Brothers in horses. Colonel Marriyat and Mrs. Westhead secured some prizes for stock and field products.

Councillor H. W. Garman obtained the prize as the best shot in central Alberta. He was closely followed by Mr. Alex Mather.

Mr. G. R. Ralston recently pulled a turnip weighing twenty-four pounds. He also grew a large quantity of sugar beets very successfully. It is his intention, we believe, to send some of these to the Government Experimental Farm to be tested. If the report is satisfactory a new industry may in consequence spring up in our midst.

Mr. McLeod from Toronto, and two other gentlemen are here looking over their coal fields. These, should circumstances prove favorable, may soon be opened up and operated.

On the occasion of the Stettler fair a return match at baseball was played between our boys and those of Stettler. The latter was successful, but treated their opponents with courtesy and good natured chaffing.

After a fine week rain began to fall on Saturday night.

Miss Bridleman continues to improve in health.

A Season of Plenty.

Slowly and almost imperceptibly the cool breath of autumn creeps over the earth, now in its full tide of increase. Nature, ever instant and changeable, has reached the season of her utmost prodigality. The awakening of spring, the swift development of summer and the maturity of autumn succeed, each seeming to surpass the other in charm and beauty.

Spring breaks the long iron-bound isolation of winter; summer brings languor and rest from the season of endeavor and with the invigorating air of Alberta's autumn comes the renewed zeal without which the western homeseeker cannot subsist.

Like the gopher that hides his harvest under the willow root, the great human family is preserving the fruits and vegetables against the unproductive months of winter and the backwardness of spring.

To the city the holiday maker returns. In the country the first thought is: How can the harvest be saved before Jack Frost sweeps down on the unprepared grains, vegetables and vines? From dawn till dusk the husbandman reaps his harvest in the hope of winning the race with nature and knows that when December comes he will have done his best, and that none could have done more.

Come for a day to Alix, the prospective metropolis. The 2nd day of September, celebration day, the farmers' query over this new and sunny province, as elsewhere was "How are the crops?" The sheaves of well-filled oats and wheat are only symbolical of what the section can produce even under the most strenuous conditions. The roots, the tubers, the bulbs, all suggest the fertility and early maturing qualities in the soil. The people are aggressive. Look at that race track, almost perfect, and see how enthusiastic our fellows are over that base ball contest. Stettler couldn't hold a flash light to Alix and they bet so much of their hard earned cash on their supposed easy victory, that Bentley had barely enough money to get home. They were nearly all in the same boat.

Stettler celebration is on and Alix lines up her products, her grains, and her men of music and sport. The gray breeches win the hearts of music lovers from the start. The common talk all day, "We did think our boys could play good music, but Alix has got us skinned a mile."

Where is Bentley? Oh! he is up to the rink selling tickets to let the people in to see the Alix demonstration of grains and vegetables. Sixteen firsts and seconds out of a total of forty. The silk banner goes to Alix.

Alix has cleaned up everything inside the rink while Messrs. Jacques Bros and Taylor has defeated with ease, their hottest competitors in horses and cattle, bringing all their tickets of red and blue to Alix.

Bentley has gone to arrange a new code of rules for the baseball contest. Alix had no intention of playing ball. Bentley was firm, inasmuch that the game had to be played as it was advertised.

Davis and Cole were chosen by Bentley to whirl the sphere for Alix while the Calgary sports played the two-old cat for Stettler. Alix with the Bentley battery had their opponents at a stand and the tide was rolling high to Alix when the just and only fair umpire manifested a disposition of very recently having been purchased or probably bought to shut the Alix Bentley team out from winning the sweetstakes.

Who ever heard tell of a man taking or being allowed four or five bases on a passed ball and the calling of a runner out when the base holder was three feet from the bag. These are fringes of the Bentley rule book.

Those of us who have the exhibition habit entered in with the real spirit in which these fairs were founded and it was well that some possessed it.

As it is the celebration lives and flourishes in Western Canada as a social institution and platform of amusement.

Why He Worked.

He made his life an awful grind.
He worked on like a miller.
Until his face with care was lined
And daily getting paler.
His tasks he tackled with a zest.
He took no recreation.
And really very little rest.
To get a reputation.

Then rather up-hill work, he found.
He stood some awful pinches.
He knew that he was gaining ground.

Although it was by inches.
The reputation that he craved
To him seemed ever dearer.
And still the foolish fellow eluded
As it was drawing nearer.

The reputation was acquired.
The price was high. He paid it.
However, he was pretty tired.
Not happy when he made it.

The hardest seemed a little small.
When time had come to reap it.
He killed himself, too, after all.
Endeavoring to keep it.

The secretary-treasurer reported that all by-laws had been copied in by-law book.

There being no further business
the Mayor declared the meeting closed.

T. CLARK KING, Sec.-Treas.

We're Surprised at George.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Documentary evidence has just been discovered in Fairfax county, Virginia, to prove that George Washington was not always regarded by his neighbors as a model of veracity. At the May term of the Fairfax county court in 1700, he was publicly "presented" by the grand jury for swearing to a false list of his taxable property.

The discovery of this record was made by Captain S. R. Donahue, editor of the Fairfax Herald, the weekly paper of Fairfax.
While seeking data for a history of the county, which he is engaged in writing, Capt. Donahue examined the ancient records of the county court. In the musty depths of pages yellow with age,
he unearthed, a day or two ago,
proof of the fact that in 1700
criminal proceedings were instituted against Washington for not entering his property for taxation.
an offense which involved the making of a false oath.

The word "presented", as used in this report, carried in those days only a slightly different meaning from that of the word indicted, a difference largely technical. In short, the greatest of Americans was believed, on judicial inquiry and examination by twelve substantial men of his own county, to be guilty of what is today termed tax-dodging. Washington, however, was indicted in good company. The William Fairfax presented with him was a nephew of the great Lord Fairfax, whose possessions could have easily blanketed a half dozen German municipalities.
